

2018 Johanneshof Cellars Marlborough Gewürztraminer

Ethereal aromas of exotic spice and sandalwood are followed by opulent flavours of rosewater, ginger and marzipan. This unctuous, full bodied Gewürztraminer finishes with a powerful but elegant luscious finish.

One of the most prestigious awards received for a previous Vintage (2004) of this wine is the international Trophy for 'Champion Aromatic White Wine in the World' at one of the world's largest wine competitions 'Decanter World Wine Awards' in London (2005).

Johanneshof's Gewürztraminer is considered a benchmark for this variety in New Zealand.

It has been included in Air New Zealand's 'FINE WINES OF NEW ZEALAND' list of 'Iconic New Zealand' wines every year since its inauguration in 2016.

Johanneshof Gewürztraminer has been one of only two wines of this variety to be named a 'SUPER CLASSIC WINE OF NEW ZEALAND' by Michael Cooper's Buyers Guide to New Zealand Wines" every year since 2011.

Johanneshof Cellars was established in 1991 and is jointly owned and operated by Edel Everling, a fifth generation winemaker from Ruedesheim, Rheingau, Germany and Warwick Foley from Marlborough. Both winemakers trained in the world-famous wine area of Rheingau in Germany.

All grapes are hand-harvested from sustainable vineyards and fermented in small tanks or barrels with minimal interference to ensure the highest quality.

The winery has a formidable reputation for its Aromatic varieties namely Gewürztraminer, Riesling and Pinot Gris. Edel and Warwick also produce Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Noir, Noble Late Harvest Riesling. The quality of wines produced has reflected in the many awards Johanneshof has received including Trophy for 'Best International Aromatic White wine' – Decanter World Wine Awards 2005.
