

2018 Johanneshof Cellars Marlborough Pinot Gris

Off-dry in style this 2018 Pinot Gris has the bouquet of honeysuckle, quince and stonefruit with a touch of flintiness. The full bodied wine appeals with its intense flavours of rock melon and stone fruit with its lees influence resulting in a long, silky finish.

Johanneshof Cellars was established in 1991 and is jointly owned and operated by Edel Everling, a fifth generation winemaker from Ruedesheim, Rheingau, Germany and Warwick Foley from Marlborough. Both winemakers trained in the world-famous wine area of Rheingau in Germany.

All grapes are hand-harvested from sustainable vineyards and fermented in small tanks or barrels with minimal interference to ensure the highest quality.

The winery has a formidable reputation for its Aromatic varieties namely Gewurztraminer, Riesling and Pinot Gris. Edel and Warwick also produce Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Noir, Noble Late Harvest Riesling. The quality of wines produced has reflected in the many awards Johanneshof has received including Trophy for 'Best International Aromatic White wine' – Decanter World Wine Awards 2005.
