

IRVINE

The Estate 2019 Barossa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

COLOUR

Dark purple with a vivid purple hue

NOSE

Lifted cassis, mint and blackcurrant

PALATE

A seductive rich palate with a core of unctuous, sweet blackcurrant and plum fruit supported by a horde of varietal mint chocolate, cedar, spice and eucalyptus as well as subtle threads of roasted coffee bean and almond praline. The acid is apparent and drives throughout the palate, culminating with supple, chewy tannins and an embracing warmth

STYLE

Oak matured, full-bodied Barossa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

WINE ANALYSIS

Alc/Vol: 14.8%

Acidity: 5.88g/L

pH: 3.53

Dry