

Johanneshof Cellars 2022 Marlborough Pinot Gris

The Pinot Gris has a lovely opulent pearl appearance. It has a light brioche bouquet with perfumed fragrant notes of pear, peach and honeysuckle.

This beautifully balanced Pinot Gris displays mineral, apple and pear characters with a pleasing acidity. Enticing white fleshed nectarine, with a juicy, luscious silky smooth finish.

Perfect with seared or grilled fish, chicken dishes, antipasto platters or just great on its own.

At its best : now to 2025

Johanneshof Cellars was established in 1991 and is jointly owned and operated by Edel Everling a fifth generation winemaker from Ruedesheim, Rheingau, Germany and Warwick Foley from Marlborough. Both winemakers trained in the world-famous wine area of Rheingau in Germany.

The winery has a formidable reputation for its Aromatic varieties namely Gewurztraminer, Riesling and Pinot Gris. Edel and Warwick also produce Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Noir, Noble Late Harvest Riesling. The quality of wines produced has reflected in the many awards Johanneshof has received including Trophy for Best International Aromatic White wine – Decanter World Wine Awards 2005.
